IN THE LABOUR COURT GOVERNMENT OF GOA AT PANAJI

(Before Shri S. V. Nevagi, Hon'ble Presiding Officer)

Application No. LCC/3/88

Shri Dniadev J. Phadte — Applicant

V/s.

M/s. Uniloids Ltd. — Opponent

Applicant represented by Adv. G. Shirodkar.

Panaji, Dated: 8-12-1988.

This is an application filed by a medical service representative of the Opponent, drugs manufacture factory having its office at Nacharam IDA, Hyderabad claiming certain dues for arrears of salary, expenses, incentive, bonus, gratuity and leave encashment.

The matter was registered and the notice issued to the Opponent company was duly served. The Opponent did not appear in court through its representative or through any pleader but sent a letter on 12-10-1988 (letter actually dated 26th September, 1988) informing the court that the factory was under lock-out for the preceding 21 months and their bank account was closed and that they were not in a position to defend the suit. By way of information it was further stated that the factory had asked for relief under B.I.F.R.

It appear that the Company did not know the repercussion of the absence in response to court notice. As the company was having its office outside Goa repeated notices were sent to the company advising it about the progress of the case and the possible ex-parte order being passed if no appearance was put up on its behalf. For all those notices there was no positive response from the company excepting the letter stated above. It appear that the company has applied for relief under B.I.F.R. and it has blissfully remained under the impression that the company which is under a lock out is a sick unit and its liabilities will be decided by the concerned authorities. This is however a claim petition filed by an ex-employee and the claim has got to be investigated into by the Labour Court as required u/s 33 of I.D.A. 1947. Hence, the ex-parte order had to be passed against the Opponent company and the ex-parte hearing took place.

Initially, the evidence of the workman was recorded on 12-10-1988 and thereafter at the instance of his advocate his further evidence was recorded on 7-12-1988. Now, I have to consider his case about the claim on these different items. As his evidence has gone unchallenged I have to accept that he is entitled to the arrears of salary, expenses, incentive, bonus and leave encashment. It appears that after he served a notice on the Opponent company the applicant received some amounts including the dues of Rs. 8500/- towards the dues of Provident fund. There is also dispute regarding the amount of Gratuity about which the workman is not quiet sure. Anyway, the gratuity is claimed and as the same is not challenged, I grant that claim also. Thus after deducting the amounts received by him, the applicant has confined his claim to Rs. 20,013.48. This amount includes the dues on account of P.F. and I think the claim made by the applicant in this regard is not proper. In his letter to the Opponent company dated 20th April, 1986, vide Exb. W-8 the applicant has claimed Rs. 9,500/- towards contributory provident fund. Even as per his showing this amount claimed was claimed approximately. However, as admitted by the applicant himself the company sent him the total amount of P.F. which as per the estimate of the company was Rs. 8,506.52. This figure arrived at by the company has got to be accepted as the proper amount towards P.F. The applicant has failed to show how he can claim Rs. 9,500/- when he was not sure about the amount. Hence after deducting the over claim of Rs. 993.48 on account of P.F. I feel that the applicant has proved his claim for Rs. 19,020.00. This claim has gone unchallenged. So I grant the claim and pass the following order:

The applicant Shri Dniadev J. Phadte is entitled to recover an amount of Rs. 19,020.00 (Rupees nineteen thousand and twenty only) from the Opponent as dues. The Opponent do pay the amount and if the Opponent fails to pay the amount the same shall be recoverable according to law.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Presiding Officer,
